KEYNOTE SPEAKER · FORMER MAYOR

Mike Elliott

First Black mayor of Brooklyn Center, MN (2019–2023) · First Liberian-American mayor in U.S. history · mikeelliott.com

> The story: A refugee of Liberia's civil war who arrived in the U.S. at eleven — and two decades later led one of America's most diverse suburbs through a national crisis: the police killing of Daunte Wright, ten miles from the Chauvin courtroom. Then the harder story: rebuilding public safety from scratch while the country watched.

SPEAKING TOPICS

1. From Refugee Camp to City Hall — keynotes, commencements
2. Leading Through Crisis — executives, municipal associations, public administration
3. Reimagining Public Safety — policy conferences, universities, think tanks
4. Building Communities That Work for Everyone — community foundations, civic & faith orgs
5. Leading From Your Center — leadership institutes, ERGs
6. When the Highway Comes for Your Neighborhood — environmental justice, urban planning, public health
7. Governing Through a Pandemic — public health, emergency management
8. Giving Residents a Seat at the Table — economic development, community benefits coalitions

RECORD CITED BY

ACLU · UN General Assembly report · California DOJ RIPA Board · NC Law Review · AP, NYT, BBC, CNN, MSNBC, CBS Mornings coverage

FORMATS

Keynotes · panels · workshops · commencements · community events · virtual & in-person

FEE GUIDANCE

Live keynote: $10,000–$25,000 + travel
Virtual: $5,000–$10,000
Community/nonprofit: flexible — honorarium or travel-only considered

BASED IN

Minneapolis–Saint Paul, MN
Travels nationally & internationally

WATCH & READ

Topics + video: mikeelliott.com/speak
Press archive: mikeelliott.com/coverage
Bio + headshots: mikeelliott.com/press

Bookings: mikeelliott.com/speak · Approved bio, headshots & fact sheet at mikeelliott.com/press